March 2024

Mark September 7th for our 11th Covenanter Scottish Festival, to be held on the grounds of Middle Octorara and Octorara Covenanter Presbyterian Churches, 1199 Valley Road (PA 372), Quarryville, PA. Activities will be held in the historic Covenanter Church building, the oldest Covenanter Presbyterian Church in North America as well as on the meadow of the lower church.

Proceeds from this festival will help the foundation not only maintain the historic building but also to accomplish long-needed repairs and to save for major replacement; exterior painting is needed soon. We also maintain the Museum Room behind the old church sanctuary and collect and catalog items of Southern Lancaster County history. The museum was originally built as an Academy to educate the children of both congregations as well as neighboring children. In the early 20th century, it became the Bart (Township) High School.

We're so looking forward to welcoming back all our friends and greeting new ones. Please note that instead of offering a discount for early registration, we've reversed it to a penalty for late registration.
